
PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT

Rwanda TVET Board in collaboration with ADHI-Rwanda Ltd (American Dream Homes International Ltd) is looking for interested candidates to undergo a one-year special training program leading to employment in the construction sector using Light Steel Frame Technology.

ADHI offers a patented and innovative green construction technique and based on the agreement between ADHI and the Government of Rwanda, a TVET Academy has been established in the City of Kigali and will be offering high quality Training programs in Construction .

The cohort of this training is targeting 80 (Eighty) students who will benefit from a study loan repayable upon employment. This training program is expected to start in July 2023, and interested candidates fulfilling the requirements below should submit their application documents to Rwanda TVET Board through the following E-mails: rtbcurriculum@rtb.gov.rw and administration@adhicorp.com not later than 18th July 2023

Minimum Requirements for Admission

- Being a Rwandan by nationality
- Candidates must have completed at least RTQFREQF Level 5 TVET Certificate V in Building and Construction Sector (i.e., Masonry, Carpentry, Welding, Electricity, Plumbing, Interior Design and Land surveying)
- Candidates must have two (2) Principal passes with Aggregate of at least Thirty (30) points at national exams in their respective field of study as mentioned above. A good command of English.
- To be familiar with AutoCAD or Solid Works software.
- Minimum of 2 years of industrial exposure in building and construction sector.
- Not older than 30 years.
- Female's applicants are highly encouraged.

Training cost per student: USD 3,300 (VAT exclusive) to cover tuition fees and to be subsidized through a study loan by the Government of Rwanda, repayable upon employment. Interested applicant will submit the following:

- ✓ Application letter
- ✓ A photocopy of National ID,
- ✓ Original and photocopy of the certificates/diplomas mentioned above

Done at Kigali on 12th July 2022

Dipl.-Ing. Paul UMUKUNZI
Director General/RTB

